

Hello Friends, we want to thank you for joining us for the Sunday Service, this Sunday is a transition to a different style of online service, allowing for more connected-ness.

Instead of receiving the link as has been our practice these past weeks since March, we will ask you to make your way to our webpage (www.camrosechurchofgod.ca) and click on the LIVESTREAM service, the service will begin at 10:30 Sunday morning and following the initial live service you will be able to watch the same service on our Youtube page.
